MORSE SPECULATED FROM THE PRISON

Imprisoned Banker Cleans Up $2000 by Selling Gas Stock Short

OFFERED TO SHARE IT WITH WARDEN

Interesting Disclosure Results From an Argument Between Atlanta Editor and Prison Warden—Warden Instructed Not to Permit Prisoner to Send Any More. Such Messages—Editor Accuses Warden of Prejudice.

Atlanta, Ga., Jan. 2.—A heated personal argument between a newspaper editor and Warden William H. Moyer of the federal prison here, resulted today in disclosing that Charles W. Morse, convicted banker, made $2000 in a Wall street deal through the courtesy of Warden Moyer. It was brought out that in the spring of 1910 Morse made the money by selling "short" in gas stock by means of a cipher message Moyer allowed him to send.

Offered to Share Profits.
To show his gratitude, or for some other reason, Moyer said Morse subsequently offered to share the profits with him. This offer was refused by Moyer on the ground that Morse was a prisoner and that the profits were the result of a deal made by Morse in the option of Editor J. L. Seelye, who published the Atlanta Georgian, that he was a prisoner.

Editor a Friend of Morse.
Seelye is a personal friend of Morse and has visited him frequently in the prison. Last Thursday he printed in his paper an account of a conversation with Morse in which Morse was alleged to have been engaged in selling gas stock short in the prison.

Seelye Informed in Prison.
The publication of the account of the conversation between Morse and Seelye, which was published in the Atlanta Georgian, was the cause of a quarrel between the two men. Editor Seelye complained in person at the representative of his paper.

Morse in Solitary Two Days.
Surrounded by newspaper men assembled in his office, Warden Moyer read a statement he had prepared answering the accusations made in Seelye's paper. He declared that Morse had been kept in solitary confinement for two days in May, 1910, for refusing to divulge the source of about $40,000 found in his possession. As soon as Morse did so he was released, he said.

Editor Disputed Warden.
"I question the accuracy of some of your statements," said Editor Seelye. "I have been informed that Morse had been kept in solitary confinement for two days in May, 1910, for refusing to divulge the source of about $40,000 found in his possession. As soon as Morse did so he was released, he said.

Deputies Sustain Warden.
The warden called in two deputies to stand by him and both declared that Morse had been kept in solitary confinement for two days in May, 1910, for refusing to divulge the source of about $40,000 found in his possession. As soon as Morse did so he was released, he said.

C., in 1906, of murder on the high seas. The men were committed on an American schooner, A. H. Berwind, whose four white officers, master, engineer, mate and cook, and one negro stowaway, were killed.

Check for $10,000 from Mrs. Morse.
Mr. Morse said that on March 11, 1910, soon after the banker became a prisoner, he gave Morse permission to send a cipher message to New York. The next day, he said, he reported Morse to the warden, general, and was instructed not to permit Morse to send messages again. Some time later, he said, Morse came into his office and told him he had made $2,000 out of that gas stock deal and wanted him to have half.

Morse Found in Possession of Money.
The offense for which Morse was kept in solitary confinement was described by the warden as follows: Morse had been found in possession of a check for $10,000 made out to Mrs. Morse, which had been found in his possession. He said it was being held for Morse by one of the clerks.

LA FOLLETTE SILENT.

Refuses to Comment in Any Way on Osborn's Speech.

Grand Rapids, Mich., Jan. 2.—Senator La Follette tonight returned disappointed to discuss in any manner the remarks made by Governor Osborn in Lansing today. "I discuss issues, not persons," he said, "I have absolutely no comment to make."

"Will you pardon me?" he was asked, "if I ask you what you have to say to the statement of the Governor?"

Senator La Follette merely waved his hand, saying "I'll go on."

ON WRONG TRAIN.

Cable Drive Senator to Wrong Station at Saginaw.

Detroit, Mich., Jan. 2.—To a Saginaw "cabot" is assigned the blame for United States Senator Robert M. La Follette's inability to carry out his engagements to speak today at Lansing and Grand Rapids.

The driver took the "progressive" presidential candidate to the wrong depot.

The Wisconsin senator intended leaving Saginaw for Grand Rapids on the Grand Trunk railroad, but by mistake he boarded a train for Grand Rapids. There he boarded a southbound train, without a ticket. It is said, which prevented the depot employees from discovering and rectifying the error. He was well on his way to Grand Rapids before it became known that he was on the wrong train.

Arrangements were then hurriedly made to effect a change of trains at Saginaw. When all was ready for a revised program for the day he was announced, it was found that the senator had left for Grand Rapids.
